SALE DATES AND HOURS

Begins ...

Friday, March 16th • 10am-5pm

ends when the pianos are gone ...

We're not always the first place people buy their piano, but we are almost always the last. As a result, we have to accept trades on over half of the pianos we sell. These trades represent an extensive inventory that must be turned into cash. To do so, Steinway Piano Gallery will open its lower level basement and warehouse to the public. Over 100 used pianos will be liquidated at prices that will not be repeated. Each piano is tagged with our lowest possible price. Most will come with warranties. This is your opportunity to acquire a quality piano at a fraction of the cost of new. Come early. All pianos are one of a kind and when they're gone, they're gone.

- ◆ Used starter pianos beginning at $295
- ◆ Used grand pianos from under $2000
- ◆ Performance quality name-brand pianos at a fraction of new prices
- ◆ iPad player grands
- ◆ New Roland digitals at huge savings
- ◆ A selection of new and slightly used Steinway and Steinway-designed Boston and Essex pianos.
- ◆ Delivery and financing available
